FEARS OF FOUL PLAY.

The Mysterious Man Found Hanging to a Greene County Tree.

SOLDIER SENSATION AT TIFFIN.

A Suit Brought Against Senator Sherman

for Unpaid Taxes.

ALL THE NEWS FROM NEAR-BY TOWNS

WAYNESBURG, March 18 .- The body of the man found hanging to a tree on the farm of Samuel Hewitt, this county, is supposed to be a young man named Garrison, of Eim Grove, W. Va., who disappeared from home about six weeks ago. When the remains were taken down they were found to be in an advanced state of decomposition. A bullet wound was found in the back of the head, and the entire upper part of the face and top of the skull had been blown off. His death is supposed to have been the result of suicide, yet some circumstances indicate that he may have been foully dealt with. Pursuing the former theory it is supposed that he climed up a large tree, placed the rope around a limb, descended and climbed a smaller tree that grew ten feet from the larger one. Here he secured the end of the rope made a noose and placed it around his neck, then tied a loaded pistol to a branch of a smaller tree and in some way fired it. An empty horse-pistol was discovered hanging to a branch of the smaller tree. A strange circumstance is the fact that no blood was found on his cloth-ing and the upper and front part of the skull cannot be found.

The pistol is about 15 inches long, and it is believed impossible for him to have fired a bullet into the base of his head. Two physicians were called at the Coroner's inquest, one of whom remained steadfast to the opinion that the man's skull was injured from a blow. The man was an entire stranger in the community, but was identified as having been seen about six weeks before in a drugstors at Cameron, W. Va., and then afterward shooting at a mark along the side of the road in the vicinity of where the body was found. About four weeks ago a young man named Garrison, from Elm Grove, passed through the community inquiring for his brother, who had disappeared from home. Garrison's father once lived in Richhill township, and was a gardener.

GOT TIRED OF WAITING. A Prisoner Who Walked Out of Court and

Went West. FREEPORT, March 18 .- John Hundermark left here to-day for St. Paul. He was under indictment at Kittanning court for selling cider and came home for trial last week. He cider and came home for trial last week. He tried to have the case compromised by paying the costs, but this could not be done. A jury was empanueled and when the case was called the indictment could not be found.

A war of words took place between the District Attorney and the other lawyers connected with the case, and while this was going on, Hundermark walked out of the court room and took a train for his western home before he could be placed under ball again.

ALLEGED PENSION FRAUDS.

Some Sensational Arrests Are Promised in the Vicinity of Tiffin. TIFFIN, O., March 18.—Some time ago a number of old soldiers of this county got together and each one sent in an application for a pen-sion, the others testifying for him. The fact of so many applications from one locality and all from members of the same regiment and company excited suspicion at Washington, and an inspector was sent here at once to look the matter up. He has been here a number of days and with him are several Government detectives, who are working up the case. It is intimated that there will be some sensational arrests.

SHERMAN SUED. An Action Against the Distinguished Senn

tor for Buck Tuxes. MANSFIELD, O., March 18.-Senator Sherthe County Treasurer began two actions against him for unpaid railroad stock taxes. The first him for unpaid railroad stock taxes. The first case is for $1,748 12 due on his personal stock since 1892, and the other is for $13,518 75 taxes due since 1885 on stock held by him as trustee. The property is Pittsburg. Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad stock, which by a recent de-cision of the Supreme Court is made taxable, the same as any other stock. The Senator agreed to pay should the test case be decided against him, but he has failed to do so.

CANNONADING BRIDGES.

The Hollday Amasement of Some Hilarlous Young Men. CANONSBURG, March 18 .- The County Commissioners have been charged with having a bridge erected at this place and paying for the same without examining it to see if it was all right. The bridge is badly damaged, and not wishing to be understood as derelict in their washing to be understood as derelict in their duties the commissioners employed Officer Mackey to look the matter up.

He has ferreted out a number of young men, who, just for fun, shot at and damaged the bridge during the holidays with a cannon. The boys are willing to pay for the necessary re-pairs, but it is not yet determined what course the commissioners will pursue. STILL ANOTHER TRIAL.

One More of the Mud Run Engineers

Arraigned in Court. MAUCH CHUNK, March 18.-The trial of Engineer Thomas Major, who had charge of one of the engines on the excursion train on the night of the fatal collision at Mud Run the night of the fatal collision at Mud Run station, was begun in court here this afternoon. An effort was made by the counsel for the defense to quash the indictment, but it failed.

Major is the third of the trainmen placed on trial in connection with the disaster by which 60 persons lost their lives. Engineer Cook and Brakeman Hannigan were tried and acquitted last week.

An Advance at the Edgar Thomson. BRADDOCK, March 18.-The telegraphers, hot-bed men, drawers and chargers at the Edgar Thomson Steel Works have been notified of an advance in wages. They have been getting $2 a day. They will now receive a certain percentage, an amount not yet stipulated on all rails produced over 1,200 a day. The blowing boys at the furnaces will receive the same. The cold and hot saw men made a request for a similar increase, but were refused by the general manager.

Mistook Acouste for Whisky. TIFFIN, March 18 .- P. J. Scannell, a newsdealer of this city, and F. D. McKitty, a piano dealer of this city, and F. D. Mentity, a plane salesman from Cincinnati, entered Fred W. Christian's drugstore this afternoon, and jokingly went behind the counter and took a drink from what they thought was a bottle of whisky. The bottle contained tincture of aconite, and it was only by hard work that the doctors saved their lives. Both are still very sick.

The Bold Robbers Still at Large. UNIONTOWN, March 18. - The hearing of John S. Weltner on his second arrest for con pheny in the McClellandtown robberies was a failure, and he was again discharged from sustedy. The victims who claimed they recog-nized him as one of the gang failed to appear against him. Meanwhile the parties who are known to have been implicated are said to be located by the officers, but no move to arrest them is made. plicity in the McClellandtown robberies was a

Killed in a Saw Mill.

WAYNESBURG, March 18.-McClelland Bosworth, a 17-year-old son of George Bosworth, of Alippo township, this county, was fatally injured to-day at a saw mill. The boy was running a truck, when a large iron spike flew out and hit him on the head, crashing his skull. He was removed to his home, where he now lies in an unconscious condition.

Tried to Blow Up a Distillery. BROWNSVILLE, PA., March 18.-Unknown persons let the water out of the bollers at Philip Hamburger's distillery last night.
When the gas was lighted this morning the boilers were burned out. An explosion was avoided by there being not enough water to generate steam.

A Pirtsburg Man Robbed by Highwaymen. Uniontown, PA., March 18.-A. C. Waggener, of Pittsburg. Superintendent of the Thompson Glass Works, was held up on Wyom-ing street last night and relieved of his gold watch and $18. They missed $1,500 which he had in his hip pocket.

A Murdered Infant Found. PHILLIPSBURG, March 18.-The dead body of an infant was found yesterday in a mill dam at Osceola. A post mortem examination revealed the fact the child had been murdered. District Attorney Wilson, of Clearfield, is in-

ESCAPED FROM JAIL.

Two Prisoners Ensily Open the Door With a

Wooden Key. NEW CASTLE, March 18,-Thomas Norto NEW CASTLE, March 18.—Thomas Norton and Joseph Maloy made their escape from the county jail here this morning by using a wooden key made by them to open two iron doors leading to the Sheriff's office, and then forcing the lock of the door leading to the jail yard.

They pleaded guilty last week to larceny, and on Friday were sentenced by Judge McMichael to a term in the Huntingdon industrial Reformatory. Norton is not yet 21 years of age, and Majoy was 17 last January. They are still at larce.

Killed by a Failing Timber BEDFORD, March 18.-William Meloy, aged BEDFORD, March 18.—William Meloy, aged 75 years, met a violent death this afternoon. He was engaged in taking down timbers from a building which was partially burned last summer, when a falling timber struck him, knocking him down and fastening one foot so he could not get it loose. In his struggles he burst a blood vessel, and was dead when found at 550 p. M.

A New Pennsylvania Railroad. HARRISBURG, March 18 .- A charter was granted at the State Department to-day to the Forest City and State Line Raifroad Company, with a capital stock of $1,080,000. This line will be 28 miles long and extend from Forest City, Susquehanna county, to the Delaware river at a point in Wayne county opposite Hancock, in the State of New York. The President is William Richmond, of Scranton.

They Want to See Him in Ohio. NEW CASTLE, March 18 .- Detective Gibson of Youngstown, captured a man named Morri at Lawrence Junction, two miles below here this evening. It is alleged that Morris stole a $75 gold watch from a Youngstown boarding house this morning. He is in the police station here to await a requisition from Ohio.

Tri-State Brevities. STRONG indications of the presence of oil in Codonis township, York county, near New Salem borough, five miles southwest from York, have been found.

THE Welton Coal and Salt Company, o Charleston, N. Y., assigned vesterday for the benefit of creditors. Liabilities about $18,000; assets not large.

ALLIANCE is on the eve of an exciting local election, in which the question of the proper method for street lighting will apparently play a conspicuous part. THE Bridgewater Gas Company purchased the Hershberger well, at Legionville, yester-day, and it will be connected with the com-

WILD rumors are circulating at Newark to the effect that a well-developed case of smallpox has been discovered in the east end of the city. .No official action has been taken. CATHOLICS of West Newton have been un fortunate, having had their church edifice twice stroyed by wind and fire, but, nothing unted, they are preparing to erect a third ilding, finer than ever before. PETER NEARSHALSKY, the miner who was imprisoned for 54 hours at the Black Diamond colliery, Mt. Carmel, Pa., and who was liber-ated on Saturday, died yesterday from nervous exhaustion and internal injuries.

JOSEPH ORENDACS, of Pottstown, who was degree for killing his brother last November, was sentenced to 12 years in the Eastern Peni-tentiary. He escaped a verdict of murder in the first degree by being drunk at the time of THE Baltimore and Ohio freight depot, at Little Washington, was entirely destroyed by fire yesterday morning. The flames extended to the passenger station, but were checked. The freight depot was a one-story frame structure about 45x90 feet. It was well filled with freight, which was all consumed. The loss will reach $10,000. The fire evidently originated from a store in the freight agent's office.

ANOTHER ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE.

in Allegheny Man Tried to Sever His Jugular Vein Yesterday. Closely following the attempted suicide on Mt. Washington, at noon yesterday was the discovery of another attempt at selfmurder in Allegheny. Charles McFarland, residing at No. 1 Compromise street, tried to sever his jugular vein with a razor, but did not

About 4 o'clock one of the women living in the house entered an outhouse, and was horrified to see the body of McFarland lying on the floor, covered with blood. In his throat was a gaping wound three or four inches long, and in one hand he clutched a dull razor. The woman one hand he clutched a dull razor. The woman ran screaming from the place, and brought Officer Shoemaker, who had the unconscious man removed to the Allegheny General Hospital. His hands were covered with blood, and, from the appearance of the throat, he tried to tear it after doing the cutting.

McFarland is about 50 years of age, a bachelor, and lives with his sister-in-law, Mrs. Thompson, mother of ex-Officer Thompson, who shot and killed Jimmy Weeden. McFarland had been working for the past 23 years in the roundhouse of the Pittsburg. Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad, below Pennsylvania avenue. Some time ago he was discharged, and since then he has been brooding. It is supposed that he was suffering with temporary insanity when he committed the deed.

The hospital officials think his chances for recovery are good at present.

A Meeting of the Bar of the Suprem Court to take Appropriate Action. WASHINGTON, March 18 .- A call has been WASHINGTON, March 18.—A call has been issued for a meeting of the bar of the Supreme Court of the United States, to be held April 6, at 1 o'clock, in the Supreme Court room, for the purpose of taking appropriate action respecting the death of the Hon. John A. Campbell, of New Orleans, formerly an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, and for many years a member of its bar.

It is desired to have a full and wide representation of the bar present, and for this reason the meeting will not be held until the 6th of next month, so as to enable those living at a distance to attend.

HEAD AND ARM CUT OFF.

Prightful Discovery on a Roof, After the Decapitation Took Place. The Wheeling express on the B. & O. last night cut off the head and arm of a man near Soho. His name is supposed to be Oscar A. Whittiker. He had in his pocket a letter from Bridget McGill, No. 618 Manor street, Southelds. The head was found on the roof of a black-smith shop under the trestle.

The man was identified later as Peter Gill, of No. 613 Manor street, where he lived with his widowed mother. He was 30 years old.

Only Ten Days Old. Last night about 10 o'clock, a woman left a bundle in the vestibule of 129 North avenue, Allegheny. It contained a small baby, perhaps Allegheny. It contained a small baby, perhaps 10 days old, wrapped up in a warm blanket and dressed in nice new clothes.

that everything depends on the kind used. Ask for Ayer's Sarsaparilla and take no other. For over forty years this preparation has had the endorsement of leading physicians and druggists, and it has achieved a success unparalleled in the history of proprietary medicines.

"For a rash, from which I had suffered some months, my father, an M. D., recommended Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It effected a cure. I am still taking this medicine, as I find it to be a most powerful blood-purifier."—J. E. Cocke, Denton, Texas.

"C. H. Hut, Druggist, Evansville, Ind., writes: "I have been selling Ayer's Sarsaparilla for many years. It maintains its popularity, while many other preparations, formerly as well known, have long been forgotten." "I have always recommended Ayer's Sarsaparilla as superior to any other preparation for purifying the blood."— G. B. Kuykendall, M. D., Pomeroy, W.T.

GUSKY'S!

That "copper" stood amazed to see Such wondrous styles and dignity. "Who made this dude?" he loudly cried. And, proudly gay, our youth replied-GUSKY'S!

The People's Favorite Clothiers Hatters, Furnishers and Shoe Dealers, 300 to 400 Market Street.

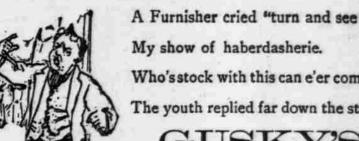

GUSKY'S!

The Monday sun was sinking fast,

Of countless treasures set for show, Within, the shoppers priced and bought But in his mind abode one thought-GUSKY'S!

In windows bright he saw the glow

My show of haberdasherie. Who's stock with this can e'er compete?" The youth replied far down the street-GUSKY'S!

The youth replied, "It may be so But just the same I'll always go-To GUSKY'S

"Try not to pass," a clothier cried,

"The lowest prices are just inside."

This was the cobbler's last suggest. The youth replied, "They keep the best-

Give industry and skill its dues."
